

Orland Park, Illinois
February 26, 1921

Mrs. C.R. Steckmesser
Project #30211
Old Bloom High School
Chicago Heights, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Steckmesser:

Thank you so much for your trouble in securing information for us concerning a tax supported library in Orland Park. We can now get to work and try to enlist the yearly aid of the other organizations in the village. This I think is a good suggestion. If we succeed in that, perhaps our library board should then be composed of representatives of each organization so that they would feel that they are participating in more than a money sense.

As to the books I should have sent in a list long ago but Teddy has been ill and I didn't get to it. For the children we would like two books. One I'll ask you to choose and the other is "Happy Prince" by Oscar Wilde- illustrated by Everett Shinn- de luxe edition.

For the rental shelf :

"Mrs. Miniver" by Jan Struther
"The Tragedy of X" by Elery Queen
"Sapphira and the Slave Girl" by Willa Cather
"With Love and Irony" by Lin Yutang
"Witchcraft" by William Seabrook

Thank you too for the information on a table and chairs. I've also been in touch with the WPA Art Project. So far have been unable to present either to the Club.

Sincerely,

L.W. Pomeroy
Lib. Chairman

